To,

The Director/Dean/Principal/HOD/Registrar,

Greetings and warm wishes from Symbiosis Law School, Pune!

After receiving an overwhelming response to the Three Editions of Symbiosis Law School, Pune – International Criminal Trial Advocacy Competition, we are glad to inform you that the Fourth Edition of Symbiosis Law School, Pune – International Criminal Trial Advocacy Competition [SICTA] will be held from March 22 - 24, 2019 at Symbiosis Law School, Pune.

The competition is based on simulation of the Trial Chamber of the International Criminal Court and pertains to rules and structure as enshrined in the Rome Statute of ICC. The theme for the fourth edition of SICTA is “Prosecution against piracy as an International Crime under the ambit of the Rome Statute”. The maximum number of participants per team shall be restricted to 3 (2 Speakers & 1 researcher) or only 2 speakers.

The Competition shall have teams representing three sides – Prosecution, Defense or the Victims(s) in the various rounds of the competitions. There shall be three preliminary rounds followed by the semifinals and the final.

REGISTRATION:

It is an INVITE – ONLY Competition and limited to 24 teams. The registration is based on first cum first serve basis. The prospective teams should provisionally register for the Competition by sending an email to symbiosismoot@symlaw.ac.in on or before December 01, 2018 (Saturday). The subject of the email should be “Provisional Registration for the SLSP – International Criminal Trial Advocacy Competition, 2019”.

The Compromis, the Rulebook and the Schedule of the Fourth Symbiosis Law School, Pune – International Criminal Trial Advocacy Competition, 2019 will be released on December 21, 2018 (Friday).

Looking forward to active and enthusiastic participation from your Law School/College/University.

Regards,

Dr. Shashikala Gurpur, Fullbright Scholar
