10. WITNESSES

10.1 General Rules

10.1.1 The witnesses are assigned to every participant team (2 witnesses per team based on the side allocation) for the purpose of conducting examinations during the oral rounds and to provide testimony based on their knowledge or experience regarding the case, helping the court establish facts and reach a verdict.

10.2 Witness Briefing

10.2.1 Based on the side allocated to the teams, their respective allocated witnesses will be allotted. The respective two allocated witnesses will be introduced to the participant teams. It is the team's responsibility to brief the witnesses on their expected conduct in the courtroom and guide them on how to respond to questions posed by opposing counsel or the judges.

10.2.2 The witness briefing sessions will be held for 30 minutes by the participating teams before the commencement of the oral rounds. Within these 30 minutes, the participant teams must effectively brief the witnesses. No additional time will be given for the same and the responsibility of such effective briefing rests solely on the participant teams.

10.3 Oral Pleadings

10.3.1 Each witness will be given a specific time to plead the case along with the adequate cross-questioning time which will be shared via the Procedural Order in due time.

10.3.2 The assigned time for examination of each witness is as follows-

TENTH SYMBIOSIS LAW SCHOOL, PUNE – INTERNATIONAL CRIMINAL TRIAL ADVOCACY COMPETITION, 2025

- a. Examination in Chief by ICC Prosecutor- 8 minutes
- b. Examination by Victim Counsel- 6 minutes
- c. Examination by Defense Counsel- 6 minutes

10.4 Miscellaneous

10.4.1 Witnesses for the competition will be selected by the Organizing Committee and are randomly assigned to fixtures and courtrooms prior to the oral rounds before the team is allotted to such courtroom. No complaints regarding the allotment of witnesses shall be entertained by the Organizing Committee.

10.4.2 Teams will be evaluated based on the effectiveness and clarity of their briefing to the witnesses. The briefing should ensure that witnesses are well-prepared to handle the examination effectively within the courtroom.

10.4.3 Teams are fully responsible for the behavior, conduct, and performance of their assigned witnesses during the oral rounds. The Organizing Committee will not be held liable for any issues related to witness conduct, performance, or merit in the courtroom.

10.4.4 No complaints or grievances will be taken up by the organizing committee regarding the intellectual capacity of the witnesses as the responsibility to effectively train the witnesses lie on the team itself.

10.4.5 To help students understand the role of a witness, witness briefing sessions were conducted prior to the competition. These sessions, however, were purely for academic learning purposes and bear no connection to the facts or issues in the moot compromise. Teams should note that the preparation and performance of witnesses during the moot will rely solely on the team's briefing prior to the rounds.

10.4.6 Witness anonymity must be maintained by both the participating teams and the student witnesses.

10.4.7 No chits or notes can be taken inside the courtroom by the witnesses passed from the teams or otherwise. While participant teams can show the same while conducting the briefing sessions, the same cannot be carried by the witnesses during the proceedings.
